DETAILED ACTION

1. The preliminary amendment filed 9/30/03 has been entered.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 9 is objected to because of the following informalities: there is lack of antecedent basis for "and/or analyzer".

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the transmission x-ray source of claim 5 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The limitations conveyed by the following terms are unclear:

specific spatial coherence

optical distance

shows an output ranging....

spatial coherence length

parametric x-ray source (claim 5)

Claim 1 is improperly written in narrative form rather than in a positive recitation of the elements that comprise the invention. Claim 3 is not meaningful since it defines the focus in terms of the object which is not claimed. Claim 6 recites how the device may be operated but fails to further define the structure recited in parent claim 1. Method claims 12-20 improperly depend from apparatus claim 1.

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The disclosure fails to teach how to construct an x-ray source whose power output may be varied from 50 watts to 10 kilowatts while emitting x rays that are coherent. Further, the disclosure fails to teach how to ensure a specific coherence, coherence length or temporal coherence. Further, the disclosure fails to teach how to process several phase contrast images to form an overall phase contrast image (claim 16) and how to process several phase contrast images to form a phase contrast computer tomogram (claim 20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over S.W. Wilkins et al., "Phase-Contrast Imaging Using Polychromatic Hard X-Rays," Nature, V. 384, 1996, pp. 335-338.

10. With respect to claims 1-20, Wilkins et al. disclose (pp. 335-338) a phase contrast x-ray device for creating a phase contrast image of at least one object, comprising at least one x-ray source for generating x-radiation having spatial coherence and at least one evaluation unit for converting the x-radiation after the x-radiation has passed through the object. Claims 1-20 are rejected to the extent they are enabled.

Art Unit: 2882
